

Benefit Counseling and Planning Services:

Provides you with information on how your SSI, SSDI, Medical Coverage, and other programs and entitlements are affected by earnings

Explain the impact of earnings on:

- SSI, SSDI, Veteran's, Railroad Retirement and other disability benefits
- Long Term Care programs, Medicare and Medicaid programs, and other medical coverage options
- Housing Assistance, Food Share, and Care Taker Supplement

Services are provided by Benefits Counselors who are experienced, knowledgeable, and well trained.

Casey Sackett

100 W Keenan St
Rhineland, WI 54501
Phone: 715-362-2773
Fax: 715-362-3960
800-221-3115

Services Provided:

- Benefits Counseling
- A comprehensive written analysis
- Planning for transition from disability benefits to employment
- Work Incentives assistance
- Assistance in resolving benefit programs issues
- Explain benefits, Work Incentives, and other entitlement programs
- Guidance in obtaining and keeping medical coverage and long term care services

PASS Plan Writing:

- Assistance in writing a Plan to Achieve Self Support (PASS) that can pay for items, services, or education needed to help meet your employment goal.

Pam Busche

PO Box 40
Manawa, WI 54949
Phone: 920-596-1555
Fax: 920-596-2288
800-386-6249

Benefit Counseling and Planning Services

Counties Served

- Clark
- Forest
- Langlade
- Lincoln
- Marathon
- Menominee
- Oneida
- Portage
- Shawano
- Vilas
- Waupaca
- Waushara
- Winnebago
- Wood

What you will gain:

Information and assistance to make informed choices about working and benefits.

A comprehensive written benefits analysis to explain:

- The impact of earnings on all benefits and entitlements you receive
- What Work Incentives are available to you and how to use them
- Other programs and entitlements that are available to assist you
- How to gain and keep continued Medical Coverage
- Other resources available in your area
- Available work incentives to help you keep more of your earnings

How to receive services:

You can contact us directly or ask your DVR Counselor, Economic Support Specialist, or Case Manager for a referral. There is no cost to the consumer for services.

HEC

The Health and Employment Counseling Program (HEC) provides access to Medicaid through the Medicaid Purchase Plan to disabled people who are not currently employed but would like to be. Employment must be attainable within 9 months to be eligible.

BeneSense Inc. provides information and/or training on the Medicaid Purchase Plan (MAPP) to Government agencies, private businesses, both public and private groups and associations.